DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 1 is vague and indefinite because it is unclear of the step how to automatically receive a customer identification record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sronivassan (U.S. 5,724,412).

Sronivassan teaches a computer implemented system for providing a Uniform Resource Locator (URL) to a customer comprising: automatically receiving a customer identification record including a destination address associated with a communications terminal of the customer during a telephone call with the customer; ("the present invention is useful for providing various types of Internet identification information depending upon the type of Internet communication capabilities the caller has. In particular, the Internet identification information may include one or more of the caller's e-mail address, the caller's Universal Resource Location (URL) identifier, a Gopher address, a Wide Area Information Server (WAIS) address and a file transport protocol (FTP) address.”) selecting at least one URL to be sent to the destination address of the customer (In particular, the Internet identification information may include one or more of the caller's e-mail address, the caller's Universal Resource Location (URL) identifier); and generating and sending an electronic message containing the at least one URL to the destination address of the customer. (col.1, line 34-col.2, line 14)

wherein the electronic message contains additional items selected from an electronic coupon, an on-line trial subscription, a user ID, a user password, advertisements, merchant information, or combinations thereof, wherein the user ID and user password are required by the Website having the address of the URL. (in step 312, the callee provides the caller information manager 54 with identification information such as a user ID and password which the caller information manager 54, in turn, uses as input to the caller-ID manager 58)

recording the at least one URL into a bookmark section of a browser in the communications terminal. (54) wherein the customer has a telephone system selected from a digital telephone, a centrex, a PBX, a telephone service provider and combinations thereof. (14, 74)

wherein the merchant has a telephone system selected from a digital telephone, a centrex, a PBX, a telephone service provider and combinations thereof. (26, 86) wherein the communications terminal is selected from a mobile telephone, a personal computer, a handheld computer, a personal digital assistant and combinations thereof.

(pc)

wherein the communications terminal is a device capable of receiving e-mail. ("Thus, this aspect of the present invention may provide the callee with a quick and easy way to communicate with a caller, such as via e-mail, Internet hyperlinks, or accessing a caller's home page.") wherein the destination address for the communications terminal is selected from a computer network address, an Internet address and a telephone number. (col.1, line 34- col.2, line 14)

wherein each URL comprises an address for connecting to a Website. (it inherent that URL comprises an address for connecting to a Website)

wherein the step of recording the destination address comprises: selecting a menu function on a telephone system of the customer for recording the destination address associated with the communications terminal; and specifying the destination address on an interactive display provided by the telephone system of the customer. (216) saving the destination address as part of a caller ID within the telephone system. (224)

wherein the caller ID contains information selected from date, time, customer telephone number, customer name, customer e-mail address or combinations thereof. (58, 66)

wherein the step of obtaining the destination address is selected from reading the address from a caller ID, querying the customer to transmit the address to the telephone system of the merchant, or combinations thereof. (figs. 2A-2B "step 204, steps 224 and 228 are performed wherein the callee's terminating central office uses the caller's phone number to also query the LIDB 50 for obtaining the caller's name. ")

Sronivassan further teaches a method for sending a Uniform Resource Locator (URL) to a communications terminal of a first party comprising:
registering a destination address of the communications terminal with a database maintained by a sender; selecting at least one URL to be sent to the communications terminal during a telephone call a between the first party and the sender; generating an e-mail by a telephone system of the sender containing the at least one URL; and sending the e-mail containing the at least one URL from a telephone system of the sender to the destination address of the communications terminal. (col.1, line 34-col.2, line 14)

wherein the step of sending an e-mail further comprises: detecting the first party identification; and dispatching the e-mail to the destination address registered in the sender database under the first party identification, wherein the first party identification is detected by a technique selected from reading the first party identification from the caller ID, querying the first party for the first party identification, or combinations thereof. (steps 216 – 228)

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1-44 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
